Qualitative analysis of Criterion 1

Vaagdevi College of Pharmacy currently is offering B. Pharmacy (UG), M. Pharmacy (PG), Pharm.D., (PG), and Pharm.D., Post Baccalaureate (PG) affiliated to Kakatiya University, Warangal, Telangana. The college is a self-financed private institution established in the year 1987.

The academic calendar is provided by the affiliated University for all the programmes. The course outcomes and programme outcomes are articulated and displayed at strategic places.

The design and implementation of curricula is done as per the requirements of the affiliated University and statutory bodies.

The guest lectures are being organized along with value added courses to fill the gap in existing syllabus. To improve employability skills, the institute's training and placement cell conducts expert talks from various Pharmaceutical industries and Hospitals.

The institute offers training courses in communication and soft skills which gives students better employability. Cross-cutting initiatives like health awareness campaigns, youth programmes, social events, health camps, annual workshops, conferences, guest lectures and industrial visits complement the institution's curricula and improve student learning.

The feedback mechanism from various stake holders is in place. However, the analysis on the same could be emphasized on identifying lacuna and their implementation.
