APPRECIATION LETTER

It is to express my deepest appreciation and admiration to Dr. E. Venkateshwarlu, Professor & Head, Dept. of Pharmacology, for your exceptional role as the preceptor in supporting and motivating students to report Adverse Drug Reactions (ADRs). Your dedication to fostering a culture of pharmacovigilance among your students has made a profound impact on patient safety and healthcare outcomes.

As a preceptor, your guidance and mentorship have been invaluable in shaping the professional growth and development of your students. Your unwavering commitment to patient safety and your emphasis on the importance of reporting ADRs have not only instilled a sense of responsibility but have also inspired students to actively participate in pharmacovigilance activities.

On behalf of the ADR monitoring center, I extend my sincere appreciation and entitle you as the 'Best Preceptor' in supporting and motivating students to report ADRs.

Thank you for your unwavering commitment in Pharmacovigilance and for being an outstanding preceptor. Your contributions have had a lasting impact on the professional growth and development of your students, and your dedication to patient safety is truly commendable.

Once again, congratulations on being recognized as the 'Best Preceptor', and thank you for your invaluable contributions to the field of healthcare.

With deepest appreciation.
