Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS) is conducted every year in Vaagdevi College of Pharmacy to monitor and analyse the student's perception about Teaching-Learning process, institution performance, infrastructure and welfare. This survey helps to upgrade the quality of various aspects of the institute to impart benefit to the students. This survey includes majorly the questionnaire recommended by NAAC.

For this survey, the students are randomly selected by the system and they will remain anonymous throughout the survey process. The email ids of all the students in the institution currently pursuing the program were acquired for all the UG and PG programmes.

Questionnaire is sent to the students in Google forms through the below link to their respective email ID'S.
