REPORTS OF HUMAN RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT CENTERS

The online refresher course on "Drug Discovery, Formulation, and Development" was held from 4-10-2023 to 18-10-2023 organized by HRDC Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University Hyderabad. This report outlines the key learnings, insights, and potential applications gained during the program.

Objective of the Course: The primary aim of the course was to provide participants with an in-depth understanding of the latest advancements in drug discovery, formulation strategies, and developmental techniques. The course emphasized interdisciplinary approaches, modern technologies, and regulatory compliance in drug development.

Key Takeaways:

- Innovation in Drug Discovery
- Formulation Challenges
- Regulatory Compliance
- Sustainability in Development

Applications and Recommendations:

Knowledge Dissemination: Developed knowledge-sharing platforms to discuss advancements in drug discovery and formulation.

Process Improvement: Adopting the novel drug delivery systems to enhance product efficacy and patient compliance.

Attending this course has enriched the understanding of contemporary practices in drug discovery and development. The knowledge gained will be instrumental in improving the organization's research capabilities and aligning them with global standards. Recommend that more team members participate in similar programs to enhance the collective expertise and productivity.
