STUDENT WELFARE COMMITTEE

Date:20-03-2018

A Student Welfare Committee is a committee typically established in educational institutions, such as schools, colleges, or universities, to address the well-being and welfare of students. The committee's primary objective is to ensure a conducive and supportive environment for students to thrive academically, socially, and emotionally.

OBJECTIVES

- ❖ Counselling and monitoring of lateral entry students for coursework understanding and academic performance.
- ❖ Facilitation of focus group formation in identified courses, allocation of course coordinators in the identified courses for the lateral entry students and slow learners if any.
- ❖ Review of documents/records of all focus group sessions and related activity.
- ❖ Periodic (once a month) review with the focus group students.
