Nizamabad: Assembly Speaker Pocharam Srinivas Reddy lauded the services of Lions Club at a programme where the Lions Club presented awards to the best teachers at Amrita Gardens in Nizamabad on Wednesday on the occasion of Teachers' Day.

The chief guest at the programme, Srinivasa Reddy appreciated the Lions Club for helping the that he was also a member of the Club for some time in the past, the Speaker said that working without expecting a reward is a testament to the Lions Club members' sense of service.

He sought the NGOs to work for the poor, who look for help in the community. The poor will only grow when the government and charities take up the service.

Kodangal in lurch: BJP

Kodangal are yet to receive their patta books and they are being harassed in name of various litigations.

These poor farmers are not having pass and are kept away from getting the Bandhu and Rythu Bheema schemes. He had earlier announced that he was going to Kodangal and would extend all help to the farmers and the poor in the region, but soon after coming to power, he showed his true colours. "Why is that government not giving the poor farmers pass books and denying them the Rythu Bandhu benefits," questioned Venkataiah Kisaan Morcha and BJP workers with farmers took out a rally in Ko-odangal cross road and laid siege to the Agriculture office in the mandal headquarters. While speaking on the occasion Venkataiah demanding the government to immediately implement its promise of waiving of farm loans up to Rs 1 lakh taken from the banks.

"The TRS government is making tall claims of being a farmer friendly government but in reality the farmers in the villages are facing many problems due to the agriculture and revenue officials' apathy. Till now more than 13000 farmers in this constituency have been deprived of Rythu Bandhu benefits. In some areas there is no rain, the cotton, paddy and red gram farmers are facing tough time.

Collector stresses need to make 30-day action plan a success

HANS NEWS SERVICE

Kothagudem: Kothagudem District Collector Rajath Kumar Saini on Wednesday directed all officials to take part in 30-day special action plan. He was speaking at a meeting at the District Collectorate.

Speaking on the occasion, Rajath Kumar Saini directed the officers that the programme would commence on September 6. He said village committees meeting would be held on the first day of the programme. The officials should educate the villagers of the need to take part in the programme.

The Collector stressed the need to ensure that the people take part in the part in the programme. It would ensure success of the programme, he said. He directed the officials to conduct awareness camps in villages.

Integrated Tribal Development Agency (ITDA) Project Officer V P Goutham, Bhadrachalam Sub-Collector Bavesh Mishra and other officers attended the programme.
